Explanatory Note.—A new nomenclature has been adopted for this volume, prefixing to the names of the extinct chapters the last letters of the Greek alphabet in order of establishment. Also, owing to an effort to have the information given as accurately as possible, where addresses conflict, the ones given in the chapter rolls are the most exact.

FOREWORD

As the Editor in Chief of the Fifth Edition of the Register of the Chi Phi Fraternity, I desire to express my appreciation of the assistance rendered me by many of the chapters through their Editors, and to especially thank Brothers Frank K. Boland and Thomas W. Connally for the work they have done. This is the fourth Register upon which I have worked, in addition to the imperfect Register published in 1899. My experience has taught me many things which I cannot give in detail in regard to this work, and I regret extremely that I will be unable to use it with the next Register. Be this as it may, this will be the most perfect Register which the Chi Phi Fraternity has ever published.

The position of Brother Boland in regard to this work has been practically the same as mine, although he was not an Editor upon the Register of which Brother Ethan Allen Weaver was the Editor in Chief, but he has acquired the same information that I have in regard to discovering men who have left their old place of residence, and has the ability to locate them. As Brother Boland is an extremely busy doctor, with a large practice, I have thought it only fair to him to show the appreciation I feel in regard to his self-sacrifice by appointing him Assistant Editor in Chief, and I know that future Editors will appreciate the vast amount of work he has done, and the difficulties under which he has labored. Too much praise cannot be given to this loyal, energetic and enthusiastic member of the Fraternity.

I was not laboring under the delusion which Brother Weaver states he labored under—that all he was to do was to be the Editor in Chief and the work would be done by the active chapters. He was disillusioned, as he says, and as my experience taught me that this idea is a delusion and a snare, I was prepared to take hold at the places Brother Weaver found it was necessary for him to do before the Register was published. In the first place, I prepared the list of the Psi Chapter. This was my own Chapter and I had no objection, but a little later I discovered that another chapter had not sent out any circulars at all, and it became necessary for me to do so. But the crowning blow was, when after all of the other records were in, to discover that about two-thirds of the members of another chapter had apparently not been addressed, and it was necessary for me to take charge of that chapter. In addition to everything else there is hardly a chapter who has not reported missing men, and whom I have had to locate.

But the work is now done. How well, the other members of the Fraternity, who have had nothing to do with it, will have to be the judges, but remember that the Editors had the satisfaction of knowing they have done their work well, and criticism will have very little effect upon them.

Before leaving this subject, I wish to place on record the advisability of applying to the college authorities for the addresses of some of the missing men. In many cases I have advised the Editors to do this. In many cases I took the matter up myself and obtained a great deal of necessary information. This should be the place to begin, and after that to pursue the search as I have suggested at former times.

One innovation I have introduced is to have cards printed to be filled in with the information regarding our members. After the lists have been completed for the printer these cards will be sent to the various chapters, and form a very excellent foundation for a card index. But let me remind the chapters that it is up to them to keep these cards in proper shape, and have them ready for future Registers. This is a most important beginning, and I very much hope that the chapters will continue the work we have so well begun.

Now, one word in regard to future Registers. We have about 7,000 members, and it is impossible for the chapters to handle these address lists properly. The man usually chosen for this work is a senior, and will leave college in the middle of his work, and it will be finished by another undergraduate. In addition to this, these men have had no experience; they expect replies from all the members, and when these do not come, they fail to send a second application. My recommendation, therefore, is that the next Editor in Chief be selected living in some city; that three or four stenographers be obtained and that he take charge of the entire address list of the Fraternity. This will cost no more than to have the different chapters work upon their members, and the result will be more uniform and will be more satisfactory. Every Chapter has two or three missing men, and it takes a man with experience to locate these lost sheep. I cannot, of course, tell what effect this suggestion will have upon the members of the Fraternity, but will assure them that it is the result of work upon four Registers, and with the increasing chapter rolls the work for each chapter is too burdensome to be placed upon any active member.

The omission of the names of certain men from the Register has been a question to which there are two sides, and while I have recommended the omission of some of our members, I have had good ground in each case.

I am especially glad to be able to call the attention of the members of Chi Phi to the fact that the date of the origin of the Fraternity and the names of the founders have been discovered, and the same appears in the history written by Brother Keith. It is certainly a great source of pleasure that the origin is removed from the mists of antiquity, and that we now have a date to which we can point with certainty.

Finally, I desire to express my most sincere thanks to Brothers H. F. Brewer, Delta, Harry G. Thayer, Epsilon, Thomas W. Connally, Gamma and Eta, E. T. Benham, Iota, Richard Schermerhorn, Jr., Theta, W. S. Wells, Jr., Lambda, Garrit S. Cannon, Omicron, and E. G. Chesley, Rho, for their work upon the Register. They now know the difficulties which Editors discover, but they stuck to it and the end justifies the work. Brothers Thayer, Connally and Cannon are graduates of several years standing, and many other men would have thrown the work aside, but they did not, and to them the most sincere thanks of the Fraternity are due.

I have said nothing about Brothers Appel, Zeta, and Hayward, Mu, but put them in a class by themselves. Without them, nothing could have been done, and I confess that I fully appreciate their work, and wish that I had space to point out some of the results. In regard to Brother Appel, the preparation of the work is entirely due to his unselfish efforts. As the Editor in Chief was not in a place where he could have it done, the work of preparing the matter for the printer was placed in the hands of Brother Appel, and the Editor in Chief relieved of a great deal of responsibility.

I have already spoken of Brother Boland, but it is such a pleasure to speak of his unselfish work that I desire to thank him again for his work.

There is one matter which I would call to the attention of the Fraternity, and that is the fact that we wish to obtain the dates, in each case including the day of the month and year, of the birth and death of the members. I have been upon this work since 1899, and an examination of the list of our deceased will show you the work I have done.

Thanking the Fraternity once more, and hoping that the Register may meet with the expectations of the members, I lay down the work.

WYNDHAM STOKES,
Editor in Chief.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Our Fraternity is the result of the union of three organizations, each bearing the name, Chi Phi. The first of these originated at the College of New Jersey at Princeton, and is known as the "Princeton Order"; the next in age was founded at the University of North Carolina, and is known as the "Southern Order"; the third had its origin at Hobart College and is known as the "Hobart Order."

On December 24, 1824, a secret society having religious and literary characteristics was founded at the College of New Jersey by men prominent in the faculty led by Robert Baird, then a tutor in the college and afterwards a very eminent divine. The initials of the words chosen as the motto of this society were the Greek letters Chi and Phi. This organization, after a short existence, became merged in the "Philadelphian Society" and discontinued operations as the Chi Phi Society. Records of the latter were, however, found by John Maclean, Jr., a student of the class of 1858, some time in the college year 1853-54, among the papers of his uncle, then president of the college, and the organization thus brought to light was used by him, Charles Smith DeGraw and Gustavus William Mayer, undergraduates associated with him, to revive the old Chi Phi Fraternity, or to found a new one, according to the particular interpretation one places upon the ascertained facts. The special significance which our members attach to these occurrences of 1824 arises from the fact that much of that which was distinctive of the early organization is embodied in the fraternity of to-day. It has hitherto been a source of deep regret that our gratitude to the fathers of 1824 was perforce felt towards anonymous objects. The researches of Professor V. L. Collins and the publication in 1914, as one of the "American College and University Series," of his interesting work on Princeton, have, however, at last revealed the identity of the very distinguished men whose names are now published in our membership catalogue for the first time as founders of the Chi Phi Society, without whom our organization as we know it would have been impossible. The date of this foundation has also been ascertained to be December 24, 1824.

The chapter founded by young Maclean in 1854 existed sub rosa, owing to the antagonistic attitude of the college authorities toward secret societies, and in the year 1859 it was determined to abandon the chapter. Its records were thereupon destroyed and the following year its representation in the college ceased with the graduation of its remaining members. A chapter of the Princeton organization had, however, been established in the year 1854 at Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, Pa., which has since maintained a continuous existence, and in the year 1867 this latter chapter established at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., the third and last branch of the Princeton Order. The year of the birth of the Franklin and Marshall chapter was given as 1855 in the "Historical Introduction" to the Register of 1890, by Brother Ethan Allen Weaver. Subsequent investigations by him and others have resulted in establishing the year 1854 as the birth date of this chapter, and the college year 1853-54, not the definite calendar year 1854, as the time of the earliest Chi Phi activities of the younger Maclean at Princeton. In the absence, however, of data conclusive of the question, the year 1854 is still regarded by Chi Phi authority as the year of the reestablishment of Chi Phi at Princeton.

Although not following the chronological order of foundation, as a matter of convenience, the Hobart Order will next be considered. In 1860 a college fraternity was founded by twelve undergraduates (sometimes affectionately referred to in our family circle as the "Twelve Apostles") at Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y. The idea had its inception a year earlier and is attributed to the close friendship and association of Amos Brunson and Alexander J. Beach, members of the class of '62. They named their fraternity "The Secret Order of Chi Phi" and the Hobart Chapter the "Upsilon." Four chapters of the Hobart Order were thereafter established, whereupon in 1867 and after negotiations continued during some two years, the Hobart and Princeton Orders were united. The resulting organization, which adopted as its name the name chosen by the Hobart men, the "Secret Order of Chi Phi," has since been known as the "Northern Order."

The Southern Order was founded August 21, 1858, at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C., by Thomas Capehart, '61, and four other undergraduates. The university was then at the height of its prosperity and attracted students of social prominence from all parts of the South. Several other chapters were established in rapid succession by the young organizers, but at the outbreak of the Civil War all of these suspended operations, the parent chapter alone surviving. After the war some of these chapters were revived, others were established, and Chi Phi of the North and Chi Phi of the South learned of each other's existence through John R. D. Shepard, a member of the Alpha Chapter at the University of North Carolina. A correspondence thereupon ensued which resulted, after much negotiation and many mutual concessions, in the union, on July 23, 1874, of the two orders. The Southern Order contributed seven, and the Northern Order thirteen living chapters to the union, which assumed the name it still bears, viz: The Chi Phi Fraternity.

It is worthy of remark that, within seven years after the war, the Northern Order had established chapters in the states of South Carolina and Virginia. The significance of this action was not ignored by the southern members and it undoubtedly influenced many concessions which ended in the welding of both organizations in one firm and lasting union; a remarkable result for these men to have achieved so soon after the cessation of fratricidal conflict.

The badges of each of the fraternities from which sprang the Chi Phi of to-day differed in superficial ornamentation and design, but all consisted of a skeleton cipher pin having the letter Chi superimposed upon the Phi. The badge of the present day resembles more closely the badge of the earliest, the Princeton Order, than does that of either of the others.

The Chi Phi Fraternity numbers twenty-one living chapters on its roll. One of these owes its origin to the Princeton, and one to the Hobart Order, while four were branches of the Northern Order, and four of the Southern Order. The remaining eleven chapters were founded by the United Fraternity, June, 1915.

MEMORIAL NOTES OF THE DECEASED.

THE ALPHA CHAPTER.

University of Virginia.

The Alpha Chapter was founded in May, 1859, from the Grand Chapter of the Southern Order of Chi Phi at the University of North Carolina, and, being the fourth of the chapters of this order, was named "Delta." James Wright Moore, a brother of J. G. Moore of Omega Alpha, was instrumental in the institution of the new chapter and associated with him as charter members William Henry Baldwin, Samuel Henry Coffman, Lucien Hall, Charles Lewis Mathews, Joel Early Mathews and John Lewis Watkins. When Omega Alpha was suspended in 1868, its records were removed to Delta, which became the Grand Chapter of the Order and exercised the functions of that position until the Union with the Northern Order in 1874, when the Chapter was renamed "Alpha." The Chapter owns a house and is planning a more pretentious house in the future. Alpha has initiated 330 men of whom 85 are deceased.

THE BETA CHAPTER.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Chi Phi entered the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on May 27, 1873, when through the efforts of James Barrett Edgerly (Xi) what was known as the Tau Chapter of the Northern Order was founded with Robert A. Shailer, William L. Jackson, S. Everett Tinkham, Frank B. Morse, Charles D. Austin, Albert W. Johnson, Francis H. Williams, C. Edward Stafford and James E. Stone as charter members. This chapter continued until its charter was revoked on July 3, 1878. On November 21, 1890, the present Beta Chapter was instituted, the following signing the petition: S. H. Brockumier, Omega-Omega; A. L. Wheeler, Kappa; Ross F. Tucker, Lambda; Fred. H. Meserve, Alfred H. McCullouch, W. Hartley Dennett, W. E. Davis, Jr., Elwyn W. Stebbins, J. Vaughan Dennett, Armond S. Koch, G. H. Ingraham, Hamilton Otis, George Moore, H. E. M. Alexander, C. W. Dicker and H. A. Baldwin. The members of the old Tau chapter were later incorporated in the chapter roll. The Chapter House is known as the Navaho Club. The initiates on the roll of the two chapters number 238, of whom 24 are deceased.

THE GAMMA CHAPTER.

Emory College.

The Chapter of Chi Phi at Emory was founded by Capers Dickson and Bolling H. Sasnett on May 19, 1869, as the result of correspondence with Emory Speers and Peter W. Meldrim, of the Eta Chapter at Georgia. Associated with them as charter members were James O. Andrew, Walter R. Branham, Jr., Charles O. Jones, William O. Lovejoy, Robert L. Pierce, Robert W. Davis, Ebenezer S. Florence, Henry H. Perry, and Emmett Womack. This new chapter of the Southern Order was the first Fraternity established at Emory and was named the "Kappa." At the time of the union with the Northern Order, Kappa for a time refused to connect on the ground of irregularity of action and it was not until June 22, 1875, that the new charter was received and the name changed to Gamma. The chapter maintains a regular Chapter house and has initiated 353 members, of whom 81 are deceased.

THE EPSILON CHAPTER.

Hampden-Sidney College.

The Epsilon Chapter was founded at Hampden-Sidney, March 2, 1867, as the result of correspondence between J. H. Mason and L. B. Turnbull and H. Burnett, of the Grand Chapter, at North Carolina. The original Epsilon chapter having passed out of existence, the new organization of Hampden-Sidney was so christened. It has maintained a continuous and successful existence since its foundation, initiating 235 men, of whom 38 are deceased. Owing to faculty regulations a regular chapter house is not possible, but Epsilon has erected a comfortable and convenient lodge—The Caravansary—which makes the Chapter home. The charter members were Lewis Burnwell Johnson, Lennox Birkhead Turnbull, John S. Hanna, John Kercheral Mason, Edward Watts Maupin, William Hall Whitridge.

THE ZETA CHAPTER.

Franklin and Marshall College.

This chapter, the sole representative of the Princeton Order, was founded at Franklin and Marshall College, about December 1, 1854, through the efforts of Brother Gustavus William Mayer, of Princeton. The charter members were Joseph Henry Dubbs, Calvin Mark Duncan, John Ault, Alfred Benjamin Schwartz, William Leaman, Augustus James Cover, Jeremiah Marion Mickley and William Shearer Stenger.

After an existence of thirteen years and the institution of a third chapter of the Princeton Order at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., the union with the Hobart Order was consummated, on May 29, 1867. Under the date of June 7, 1867, a charter was granted to Franklin and Marshall with Lew Wanner, Horace A. Yundt, H. C. G. Reber, W. D. Seltzer, L. C. Audenried, John S. Lichty, Frank E. Lichty and James R. Patterson as charter members. The name "Zeta" was adopted January 10, 1868. The chapter owns its house "Dubbsheim," 415 West James Street, and has initiated 286 members, of whom 63 are deceased.

THE ETA CHAPTER.University of Georgia.

Chi Phi was the second fraternity to enter the University of Georgia. The Eta Chapter was established April 15, 1867, with P.W. Meldrim, H. W. Grady, A. P. Adams, J. E. Donaldson, J. H. Rucker, L. E. LeConte, R. H. Johnstone, Jr., and B. H. Hill, Jr., as charter members. Meldrim was the most active in founding the chapter, though Donaldson was a member of Omega Alpha. In 1876 a ban was placed on fraternities by the faculty and the chapter suspended operations to be reorganized in 1879 by Elijah A. Brown, Robert G. Taylor and Tracy Baxter (Gamma). The chapter owns its house on Lumpkin Street, Athens, and has initiated 417 men, of whom 76 are deceased.

THE THETA CHAPTER.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

The present Theta chapter was instituted at the Institute, May 28, 1878, through the efforts of William Barrett Ridgely, who had been pledged by Bro. W. A. Vincent, of Omega-Chi, later Grand Alpha. Bro. Ridgely with John Bausch and George Thackeray were initiated under dispensation by the Delta Chapter. The other charter members were Charles Stowell, Rees W. McDuffie, Frank C. Osborn, George W. G. Ferris, Arthur Cobb and Francisco DeA. Cintra. The new Chapter was named Eta, but when the Eta chapter at Georgia was revived it became Eta-Deuteron, to be rechristened by the Congress of 1880 as the Theta Chapter. The chapter owns its house, and has initiated 241 men, of whom 26 are deceased.

THE MU CHAPTER.

Stevens Institute of Technology.

The Mu chapter at Stevens was instituted November 24, 1883, as the result of the efforts of Edward Linthicum Dent, '84. He was initiated at Rutgers by the Delta Chapter and associated with himself as petitioners George J. Roberts, Geo. A. Ballantine, John H. Ballantine, Maximillian C. Beard and John W. Clark. Like Dent, Roberts had also been initiated by Delta. The chapter owns a new house, "Green Gate," which it secured in 1914, and has initiated 143 members, of whom 16 are deceased.

THE XI CHAPTER.

Cornell University.

Cornell opened its doors in September, 1868, and one month later, on October 13, the Xi chapter was instituted, chiefly through the efforts of Charles Fitch Hendryx, '69, of Upsilon. Associated with him were P. C. J. DeAngelis, also of Upsilon, J. Y. Atlee, K. T. Friend, C. L. Price, S. B. Breese, T. G. Sullivan, G. H. Crafts, D. W. Rhodes, A. R. Greene, W. D. Wilson, Algeron Sullivan, C. T. Hotchkiss and D. S. Dickinson. Chi Phi was the first fraternity to be established at Cornell. In 1881, with the graduation of five seniors, owing to the general condition of the college, the chapter was suspended. In the fall of 1887, Bros. W. F. D. Crane (Mu), W. B. Smith (Iota), and J. H. Ballantine (Mu) registered at Cornell as students, and with the aid of the local alumni were enabled, in February, 1888, to reestablish the chapter. Associated with them were L. H. Norton, A. N. Gibb, F. L. Frost, and G. S. Pfouts. Xi maintains its own chapter house, Craigielea, and has initiated 356 men, of whom 55 are deceased.

THE RHO CHAPTER.

Lafayette College.

On December 20, 1873, twelve of the members of the Delta Chapter of the Iota-Alpha-Kappa Fraternity at Lafayette, the chapter and fraternity disintegrating, petitioned for a charter in Chi Phi. They were led to this step as the result of an acquaintance between Ethan A. Weaver one of their number, and Bro. R. C. Beck, of Omega-Beta. This acquaintance resulted in a visit to Easton of a delegation from Omega-Beta headed by Bro. Oscar W. Mayer. The petition was granted and the Rho chapter established January 30, 1874. The charter members were Isaac Ott, D. B. Holt, J. B. Heller, Jr., F. E. Keith, J. A. Snively, E. A. Weaver, A. H. R. Guiley, J. R. Schick, H. M. McIntire, C. Mayfield and M. P. Reagle. E. M. Earle and E. S. Young were initiated at the same time. The chapter occupies its own chapter house, Vallamont, and has initiated 343 members of whom 56 are deceased.

THE PHI CHAPTER.

Amherst College.

Phi chapter developed as the result of the efforts of A. C. Powell and C. P. Searle. Through the acquaintance of the latter with Frank W. Hale, of Omega-Upsilon, they became interested in Chi Phi and when, in 1873. Henry Hopkins Kelsey, also of Omega-Upsilon entered Amherst he found the ground prepared for a petition which was speedily granted, the chapter being installed October 29, 1873. Owing to a faculty regulation it existed sub rosa until the following year. The charter members were O. D. Clark, F. B. Dickinson, J. W. Fiske, A. C. Powell, C. P. Searle, H. S. Hersey, H. H. Kelsey (Omega-Upsilon), M. B. McKnight, C. S. Ryder, W. St. M. Ryder, A. T. Searle, and F. E. Sibley.

The chapter possesses a new chapter house, opened in the fortieth year of its existence. The roll contains the names of 376 men, of whom 43 are deceased.

THE ALPHA-CHI CHAPTER.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

Chi Phi entered Ohio Wesleyan November 7, 1873, through the efforts of John Samuel Sullivan, '76, whose brothers were members of Xi chapter. The petitioners were members of the Alpha Di-Gamma local and were Geo. H. Thomson, F. C. Iwens, Taylor Boggs, A. T. Byers, E. E. Cole, J. O. Beale, Willis Pine, E. J. Robinson, J. A. Robinson, John S. Sullivan, W. C. Whitmer and C. F. Brooke, Jr. The chapter was known as the Chi. It had a prosperous existence until the early nineties, when troubles developed which resulted in the surrender of the charter on March 22, 1895. In 1910 the local Delta Rho Gamma petitioned for a charter which was granted and the new Alpha-Chi chapter instituted June 12, 1911. The charter members were J. J. Kirk, S. F. Meffley, L. L. Belt, J. P. Rankins, O. Worley, H. K. Miller, C. P. Snyder, P. Trevis, J. C. Foust, R. S. Swink, R. S. Shriver, C. Duckwall, F. W. Garvan, G. G. Kingsbury, L. Fetch, F. Morris, Geo. Whitman and P. S. Kingsbury. Alpha Chi has initiated 213 men, of whom 35 are deceased.

THE ALEPH CHAPTER.Johns Hopkins University.

The Convention of 1880 authorized the establishment of alumni chapters and gave to Aleph, of Baltimore, authority to initiate students at Johns Hopkins University with the idea of erecting a chapter there. Under this authority Thomas Alexis Berry, Burr James Ramage, Francis Rotch, Robert Lee Randolph and Frederick Huntingdon Pond were initiated. The object not proving feasible, the privilege was revoked in 1884. Later the names of these men were placed on the roll of Alpha chapter, to which reference is made for personal data. There was no distinctive organization at Johns Hopkins.

THE OMEGA-ALPHA CHAPTER.University of North Carolina.

In 1858 the University of North Carolina ranked among the first of the educational institutions of the south; ten chapters of national fraternities were founded there during the eight preceding years. Thomas Capeheart, '61, with the idea of continuing the intimate social relations existing between himself and his associates, conceived the idea of establishing another "Club" and on August 21, 1858, met with Flythe, '59, Cherry, '62, Seymour, '62, Green, '62, and Tucker, '61, and organized what afterwards became the Alpha or Grand Chapter of the Southern Order of Chi Phi. During the first year of its existence, chapters were erected at Centenary, Davidson and Virginia, and during the first session of 1860-61 others were established at Nashville Military College and Cumberland University. The Grand Chapter alone retained its existence throughout the war, though with reduced membership. After the war preparations were made to revive the other chapters and the Delta and Gamma were soon in working order while Eta was re-established at Georgia, Theta at Edinburgh, and Epsilon at Hampden-Sidney, completing the roster of the Southern Order. But the war had dealt such a severe blow to the University at Chapel Hill and conditions became such that in 1868 the chapter was discontinued, its effects and records transferred to the University of Virginia, to which institution many of its members transferred their allegiance. Eighty men had been initiated, of whom fifty-four are deceased.

THE OMEGA-BETA CHAPTER.

Centenary College.

The Beta Chapter of the Southern Order was established November 12, 1858, by friends of John Calhoun Tucker, one of the founders of the Alpha Chapter, who had previously been a student at Centenary. Sebastian Dutton Schwing, John Fannin Young Paine and John Tyler Jordan are accredited charter members. In April, 1861, the chapter suspended, and the records destroyed. Since that time five attempts have been made to revive the chapter but have proved abortive. As far as known the roll contained the names of nineteen members, of whom sixteen are deceased.

THE OMEGA-GAMMA CHAPTER.

Davidson College.

The Gamma Chapter, at Davidson, was the third chapter in order of establishment of the Southern Order. George F. Bason was a friend of Capeheart, Staton and J. T. Bason, of the then Alpha Chapter, and through his influence, on March 25, 1859, the chapter was established with David C. Love, G. F. Bason, G. P. Erwin, J. W. Sample, E. R. T. Burwell as charter members. In 1862 the chapter suspended operations to be reinstated by J. L. Caldwell in 1867, only to succumb to faculty regulations two years later. Omega-Gamma initiated 34 men, of whom 26 are deceased.

THE OMEGA-EPSILON CHAPTER.

Nashville Military College.

In October, 1860, the Epsilon Chapter of the Southern Order was established at Nashville Military College by Daniel Hugh Montgomery, a neighbor of Tucker, of Alpha. The records have all been lost and it is probable that no initiates were ever made by the chapter. It suspended operation at the beginning of the war and was never reorganized. All the six charter members are deceased.

THE OMEGA-ZETA CHAPTER

Cumberland University.

In March, 1861, Zeta Chapter—the last of the Southern Order to be established before the war—was instituted at Cumberland University through the efforts of David Chelsea Love, of Omega Gamma Chapter. Love entered the law school at Lebanon. The war closed the University and with it the existence of the chapter. An effort was made in 1866 by Braxton Bragg, then a member of Omega-Alpha, but was unsuccessful, and Bragg was allowed to resign and unite with Delta-Kappa-Epsilon. There were no initiations save the five charter members.

THE OMEGA-THETA CHAPTER.

Pennsylvania College.

In April, 1867, a Chi Phi Chapter was instituted at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., through the efforts of Augustus J. Cover, a member of the Lancaster Chapter of the Princeton Order. W. L. Guinther and D. B. Young were the active instruments in the foundation of the chapter. A few months later these two chapters united with the Hobart Order to form the Northern Order and the chapter at Pennsylvania College, June 19, 1876, became the Theta Chapter. The chapter existed until its charter was revoked by the convention in June, 1872. The charter members were J. F. Cressler, W. L. Guinther, M. J. Kramlich and D. B. Young. There were 18 initiated, of whom seven are deceased.

THE PSI-THETA CHAPTER.

University of Edinburgh.

In June, 1867, a chapter of the Southern Order of Chi Phi was established at Edinburgh, gaining its membership from a number of Southern gentlemen who had been classmates at Bingham School and matriculated in Scotland for the purpose of pursuing advanced learning. Lucius Fane Suthon and Robert R. B. Beasley, Omega Beta, were the leaders in the enterprise. With the class of 1870 the chapter ceased to exist. There were thirteen members, of whom ten are deceased.

THE OMEGA-IOTA CHAPTER.

Mercer University.

The Iota chapter of the Southern Order was instituted May 15, 1869, through the efforts of Peter W. Meldrim, of Eta Chapter, with W. J. Alexander, F. C. Foster, W. W. Landrum, F. Tupper, R. N. Holtzclaw, J. Robinson, W. M. Sims, A. J. Beck, J. J. Brantley and J. K. Dykes. Being the first fraternity to be established, Chi Phi throughout the life of Iota chapter held a commanding place in the institution, but in June, 1880, the University being at a low ebb, the number of students having diminished to less than one hundred, the chapter suspended. The roll contains the names of 74 members, of whom 32 are deceased.

THE OMEGA-KAPPA CHAPTER.

Brown University.

The Kappa Chapter of the Northern or Secret Order of Chi Phi was established at Brown University, April 18, 1872, through the efforts of James Barrett Ederly, of Xi chapter. The charter members were E. D. Bassett, F. W. Bradbury, G. N. Bullock, Carver Howland, W. H. King and F. M. Purinton. In the convention of 1893 charges were preferred against Kappa chapter, which were resisted, and when the Special Convention of 1895 revoked the charter, the active chapter and a certain proportion of the alumni refused to abide by the decision of the fraternity and maintained a separate existence under their original charter, calling themselves the Secret Order of Chi Phi for twenty years, when they united with another national fraternity. The names of those initiated who announced their allegiance to the Secret Order chapter are excluded from the list.

OMEGA-KAPPA.

THE OMEGA-MU CHAPTER.

Trinity College.

The Mu Chapter of the Southern Order was organized November 28, 1871, through the efforts of Theodore Winningham and J. D. Hodges and after correspondence with D. L. Cheatham, of the Gamma Chapter. The charter members were W. L. Terry, W. H. Pegram, Shadrack Simpson and Theodore Winningham. Hodges was absent from college at the organization but was enrolled on his return. The chapter had a brilliant existence until faculty regulations forced its suspension June 12, 1879. Its roll contains 68 men, of whom 29 are deceased.

THE OMEGA-NU CHAPTER.

Washington and Lee University.

On February 19, 1872, the Nu Chapter of the Northern Order was established at Washington and Lee University through the efforts of Edgar Austin Leyden, of Xi, the petition being from members of the disbanded Delta chapter of Alpha-Gamma. The charter was withdrawn by the Convention of 1878, the members having decided in June, 1875, to allow the chapter to become extinct rather than lower their standards. The charter members were T. H. Allen, J. W. Dawson, Frank Field, W. S. Jones, S. N. Jordan, J. K. Lake, F. R. Logan, W. H. Nance, T. H. Somerville and M. N. Walsh. The roll contained 29 members, of whom 15 are deceased.

THE PSI-NU CHAPTER.

University of Pennsylvania.

The Nu chapter at the University of Pennsylvania was established January 23, 1883, as the result of a petition from B. R. Field (Rho), A. B. Gloninger (Zeta), J. R. Rankin (Rho), J. M. Baldy (Psi), N. P. Hunter (Omega-Tau), George Little (Rho), J. T. Nogueira (Rho), H. M. Stine (Omega-Omega), J. S. Atlee (Zeta), S. L. Lane, R. B. Rowe (Zeta), and J. McK. Young (Rho). On account of the fact that the majority of men were in the graduate departments, and the general fraternity conditions of the university, after two years the chapter realized the futility of effort and on April 18, 1885, surrendered the charter. The membership consisted of 28 men, of whom six are deceased.

THE OMEGA-PI CHAPTER.

Kentucky Military Institute.

The Nu Chapter of the Southern Order was established at the Institute, April 25, 1872, the charter being granted to the following members of the Black Badge Society at that institution: J. P. Brown, J. L. Humphreys, C. E. Wirgman, E. R. Brown, H. W. Gardner and Lyttleton Penn. When the Union was consummated, the Nu Chapter became the Pi Chapter. In 1881, through a mistaken understanding of the action of the Convention, six undergraduates at Central University were initiated with the idea of forming a chapter there. These names are included in the roll of Omega-Pi. In 1883, the Institute becoming disabled, the charter was revoked. The roll shows the names of 76 initiates, of whom 42 are deceased.

THE OMEGA-SIGMA CHAPTER.

Princeton University.

A Chi Phi Society was organized at the College of New Jersey December 24, 1824, by a number of professors and undergraduates which existed several years and was finally merged into the Philadelphia Society. Attached at the original charter were among others, Archibald Alexander, J. W. Alexander, Robert Baird, James Carnahan, Luther Halsey, Charles Hodge and John Maclean. The names of three others are given as having joined the society later. Further records are missing. (See Life of Rev. Robert Baird, D.D., New York, 1866, pp. 39-40, and Collin's "Princeton," New York, 1914, pp. 216-217). In 1854 the original constitution was discovered by John Maclean, a nephew of the original founder, and he with Charles Smith DeGraw and Gustavus William Mayer revived the organization which became known as the Princeton Chapter of the Chi Phi Fraternity. Mayer organized a chapter at Franklin and Marshall College, under the name of "The Lancaster Chapter" and there the original constitution was in use until the union with the Hobart Chi Phi. In 1859, owing to faculty opposition, the records were destroyed and in 1860, became extinct through the graduation of the last members. On March 9, 1864, the Sigma Chapter of the Hobart Order was instituted by Samuel Philip Kelley (Omega Psi), associated with G. N. Shelley, A. W. Taylor, S. B. Taylor. The charter was revoked by the convention of 1868, on account of faculty opposition.

THE PSI-SIGMA CHAPTER.

Wofford College.

The Northern Order established its first chapter—Sigma—on Southern soil on May 31, 1871, at Wofford College. The chapter was instituted through the efforts of Edgar Austin Leyden, of Xi, with E. P. Hill, Marcus Stackhouse, L. K. Clyde, J. M. Gee, B. R. Turnipseed, H. F. Creitzberg, E. K. Hardin, J. K. Jennings, C. W. Wells and W. H. Zemp as charter members. Owing to anti-fraternity agitation and legislation the chapter suspended December 17, 1907. It had 190 initiates, of whom 36 are deceased.

THE OMEGA-UPSILON CHAPTER.Hobart College.

The Secret Order of Chi Phi was established at Hobart College as the result of the efforts of Amos Brunson and Alexander Johnson Beach. The efforts at organization began at a meeting between these two on December 10, 1859, and culminated in the adoption of the Constitution on December 4, 1860. The pin had been adopted November 1, 1860 and the first initiation oaths taken on March 14. The "Twelve Apostles" were J. W. Jones, A. J. Beach, Amos Brunson, G. G. Hopkins, E. S. Lawson, S. W. Tuttle, D. S. Hall, Jr., D. P. Jackson, H. N. Loomis, W. H. Shepard, William Sutphen and F. B. Wilson. The chapter took the name of Upsilon. The parent chapter established chapters at Kenyon, Princeton and Rutgers and in 1867 united with the Princeton Order to become what is known as the Northern Order. The chapter continued until June, 1880, when it was suspended on account of internal dissensions. By action of the Convention it was decided that the letter Upsilon be never given to a chapter at another college. Upsilon's roll carries the names of 76 men, of whom 36 are deceased.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

Alumni organizations early became a part of the graduate life of members of the Chi Phi Fraternity. In 1867 the Alpha Chapter was granted a limited charter in New York City. Later at the time of the Union with the Southern Order, the name was changed to the Chi Phi Chapter from which really developed the Grand Lodge. The second alumni organization was the Phi Chapter at Philadelphia, instituted December 22, 1870, but its charter was surrendered in 1872. The next attempt to organize the alumni occurred after the Union, then in quick succession the Aleph Chapter (Baltimore, 1880), Beth (New York, 1881), Gimel (Louisville, 1881), Daleth (Atlanta, 1882), He (Philadelphia, 1883) and Vav (Washington, 1883) were chartered. He was revoked in 1884 and Gimel in 1885, and the other chapters passed out of existence with the adoption of the constitution of 1886. These older alumni chapters had representation at Congress and Alpha, Phi and Aleph a limited power of initiation. From our records Aleph alone exerted it, using its prerogative to initiate students at Johns Hopkins with the idea, which never materialized, of establishing a regular chapter at that institution.

Since the adoption of the Constitution in 1886 there has been no recognized development of alumni organizations, but the following have been established and are active in the life and welfare of the Fraternity:
